[REDACTED]

My sanity is slowly drifting away from me. For the past weeks I've watched documentaries and reconstructions of [REDACTED] actions as well as [REDACTED]. Even if it's a video I've already seen or a page I've already read, I keep looking over them. My obsession also grows with pipe bombs and the Tec-9 that [REDACTED] used. I plan to purchase one when I'm 18 which is 6 months before the end of high school. As for the pipe bombs, I'll work with them sooner. My grip on reality also fades away as I continuously imagine myself as if I were [REDACTED] which is behind me now.
